

This year Repair the World's programming will include in-service small-group projects, remote projects, and virtual programs. Below are a few options we are highlighting for CBE members, and we hope you will check out Repair the World's MLK website for more!

<https://werepair.org/mlk-day/>

In-Person Options

Packaging for St. John's Bread & Life at Park Slope Jewish Center

Private shifts for CBE Families. Limited spots. After Jan 10, if there are spots still available they will be opened to the public.

Sunday Jan 17, 2:00-3:30pm: <https://www.tfaforms.com/4867099?id=7013s000000JvBt>

Monday, Jan 18, 10:00-11:30am: <https://www.tfaforms.com/4867099?id=7013s000000JvE1>

Join Repair the World Brooklyn at Park Slope Jewish Center to pack hygiene care kits to be donated to St. John's Bread & Life. Saint John's Bread & Life is an open door to neighbors in need and has been a vital partner in the Brooklyn area in feeding our most vulnerable during this pandemic. Following package assembly, volunteers will debrief the project and learn more about the recipient organization.

This event is open to all ages, children under 15 must be accompanied at all times and parents assume responsibility for Covid Compliance. Please note that due to the COVID-19 pandemic this event will be outdoors with limited heat. Please come prepared!

Remote “At Home” Packaging

Package Winter Care Kits at Home for Communities in Need

Sign up for remote packing to create winter care kit packages ($15-$20 per package) that will be donated to our local partner organizations Community Kitchen & Pantry and Crown Heights JCC. After registering you will receive an email with specific details about what and how to package as well as information about where to drop off your packages throughout the weekend. Join us for remote learning to discuss the service taking place at home! See email for further registration details. Sign up here.

Package School Supplies at Home for Communities in Need

Sign up for remote packing to create school supply packages ($10-$15 per package) that will be donated to our local partner organizations the East Harlem Tutorial Program and Mixteca. After registering you will receive an email with specific details about what and how to package as well as information about where to drop off your packages throughout the weekend. Join us for remote learning to discuss the service at hand! See email for further registration details. Sign up here.

Virtual Options

Free Minds

Monday Jan 18, 6:30-8:00pm

Register Here

Learn about mass incarceration in our country and read and respond to poetry written by incarcerated youth who are part of the "Free Minds Book Club." For middle school students and older.

Card Making for Seniors with DOROT

Sunday, January 17th, 11am-12pm

Register here

Bring your children to decorate cards and letters for seniors experiencing social isolation during the pandemic. For ages 5 and up.

Intergenerational Workshop with Seniors with DOROT

Monday, January 18th, 2-3pm

Register here

Bring your children to participate in fun activities with seniors and learn about the impacts of loneliness among the senior population. For ages 10 and up.

Hunger Free America Phone Bank

Shifts: Monday, January 18th

12:00-2:00 (adults & teens) Sign Up Here

2:30-4:30 (teens): Sign Up Here

5:00-7:00 (adults) Sign Up Here

Learn about food insecurity in NYC, Judaism's perspective on this justice issue, and phonebank with Hunger Free America to provide families with critical information about hunger relief programs, including Pandemic-EBT benefits.

Teens* Break the System: Exploring Systemic Racism through Speakers, Dialogue & Action
Three Part Series: Jan 12, 19 & 26, 7:30-8:30pm

In this 3 part interactive online experience, teens will meet with activists from Alabama, Arkansas, and New York to hear personal journeys touching on Jim Crow, poverty, mass incarceration and the criminal justice system. Join us to hear first hand-accounts, engage in dialogue, and participate in an interactive project. Special guests include Michelle and Curtis Browder & Kuntrell Jackson. Contact Abbe Marcus at amarcus@circle.org with any questions. Click here for more info on each session and to sign up. Brought to you by The Workers Circle, Repair the World & JTS.

Social and Educational Programs:

Shabbat at Home with NYC Repair

Friday, January 15, 6-7:30pm

Register here

How does the carceral system extend outside the prison walls? Join us for a special panel discussion to explore this topic during a Shabbat meal.

Learning with Susanna Heschel (National Program)

Sunday, January 17th, 7:30-8:30pm

Register here

Join us for a conversation with Dr. Susannah Heschel, daughter of Rabbi Abraham Joshua Heschel, who'll reflect on the relationship between Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr and her father. We'll consider the civil rights movement and justice work done in their time, the work that demands action today, and the importance of working with others across faith lines and other lines of difference.

To see other MLK programs offered by Repair the World see here!